

Main point: Christians must live lives so marked by honesty that our word becomes the gold standard.

1. Non-Christians _____ themselves through duplicity (5:33-36).
 - a. Duplicity is wrong because it _____ human dignity.
 - b. Oath-making is wrong because it mismanages God’s _____ and challenges his _____.
 - c. Jesus is primarily forbidding _____ oath-making.
2. Christians must reward themselves through _____ (5:37)
 - a. Jesus depicts a kingdom where the word of his disciples becomes the _____ standard.